

LitPick Student Book Reviews
Privacy Information for Parents/Legal Guardians

LitPick is an online reading program dedicated to help preteens and teens develop a lifelong love of reading by empowering young readers to share their opinions in a social community.

Our General Privacy Information:

LitPick is proud to be fully in compliance with The Children's Online Privacy Protection Act.

Personal information, such as e-mail addresses, mailing addresses, or other specific information, are never sold or given to third parties. LitPick never willingly supplies any personal information of a site member to authors, publishers, or others unless first receiving special permission from the member. In the case of giveaway contest winners, the appropriate information is supplied to the donor of the contest for the sole purpose of sending winners their books.

When you visit our web site and access information, you remain anonymous. We do not use cookies to track your surfing habits.

All our student reviewers must have an adult sponsor to monitor their choice of books and their online activity on our website. This adult sponsor can be a parent, teacher, librarian, or other educator.

1. SIGN where indicated below.
2. After you sign the LitPick Parental Consent below, please give this signed page to the librarian or teacher who plans to sponsor your child as a LitPick Student Book Reviewer.
